Five-Men Teams Representing the Alley Organizations of Greater New York Preparing to Compete for Cham. pionship and Prizes.

Every bowling club of any importance in the city will be represented by five members in the coming big free headpin tournament at the White Eicphant

This will be The Evening World match and all arrangemnts have been made to accommodate the largest num ber of bowlers who ever took part in a tournament.

The valuable prizes together with the championship of the United Bowling Clubs, which will go to the winners, has done much to swell the entry list but the followers of the sport realize that the very best alley men in the country will compete and that has had by applying for blanks at the White Elephant alleys. It is advisable to enter without delay, for it may be necessary to close the lists sooner than originally intended on account of the large number of applications already filed.
